Equality, Diversity and Inclusion information

Why we're asking

Conducting diversity monitoring as part of our initiatives is one of the ways in which we seek to embed equality, diversity, and inclusion in all we do to ensure that the opportunities we provide embrace a diversity of people, backgrounds, geographical locations, and perspectives.

The confidential information obtained in this section will be used for monitoring purposes and will be stored securely in accordance with UK law and UK Research and Innovation's Data protection policy <<https://www.ukri.org/wp-content/uploads/2023/07/UKRI-31072023-Data-Protection-Policy-v2.4-072023.pdf>> This information will not be used for any purpose other than to allocate places on, and analysis of, the MRC Board and Panel Observer Scheme.

Additionally, where there is evidenced need, MRC may take appropriate and proportionate interventions including in final application decisions. This is in accordance with our duty to advance equality of opportunity between those who share a protected characteristic and those who do not.

While it is voluntary to share this information, doing so will also help us to:

Identify underrepresentation – where we need to do more to attract people from certain underrepresented groups to apply for the scheme.

Ensure fairness – by reviewing our processes to ensure they are fair and transparent, and do not have an adverse impact on any particular group.

Assess impact – and track progress, and the extent to which we are achieving our diversity and inclusion aims.

Respond to individual needs – of observers, such as through providing reasonable adjustments.

Meet our obligations – under the Equality Act 2010 and Northern Ireland equality legislation.

Your answers will be treated in the strictest confidence. We handle personal data in line with UK data protection legislation and manage it securely. For more information, including how to exercise your rights, read our privacy notice <<https://www.ukri.org/about-us/privacy-notice/>> .

Disability

Definition of disability/long term condition

Under the Equality Act 2010, a person is Disabled 'if they have a physical or mental impairment, and the impairment has a substantial and long-term adverse effect on his or her ability to carry out day-to-day activities'. 'Substantial' is defined by the Act as 'more than minor or trivial'. An impairment is considered to have a long-term effect if:

- it has lasted for at least 12 months
- it is likely to last for at least 12 months, or
- it is likely to last for the rest of the life of the person.

Day-to-day activities are not defined in the Act, but they could be things people do on a regular or daily basis; for example, eating, walking, reading, writing or having a conversation.

In Northern Ireland, Disability is defined in the Disability Discrimination Act (1995) as 'a physical or mental impairment which has a substantial and long-term adverse effect on a person's ability to carry out normal day-to-day activities'.

Do you consider yourself to have a disability or long-term health condition? This could be a visible or non-visible health condition. (Required)
